Product Description

Mirakulus Flick of Faith: Apokaschnipse - board game (DE extension)

Unbridled noise, bright flashes of light, violent earthquakes! Is this the end of the world? No! It is only the gods and goddesses who are desperately trying to win a bet in the archipelago in the middle of the navel of the world. And where there is planing, there are shavings, that is clear. Now that the Maya are also involved as competition, there is no holding back. Use every disaster, no matter how tricky, to help your prophets defeat everyone else and prove that YOU alone are the greatest deity!

Flick of Faith: The Snipping Game of the Gods is a game of skill for 2 to 4 family players aged 8 and up around majorities on the islands of their favorite archipelago in the middle of the world. In it you send your followers by flicking them onto the field. If you land in the capital of the island, you are allowed to build a temple that will outlast the ages ... or the others will flip it from the island again.

The Apokaschnipse now brings even more dynamism and competition to the snipping game: new law cards and some crazy new ideas such as catastrophes or a ramp await you as well as the opportunity to play Flick of Faith with five people!

The Maya are now also part of the party and they send their loyal shamans straight into the fray to attract the unbelievers to their side.

Attention! The basic game is required to play!

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months!

- Players: 2 - 5 players, ages 8+
