Product Description

He is the lord of the machines. His true name is unknown, but he was given the title Vex Machinator because he brings trouble to anyone who gets close to him. He feeds on the spirits of dying vehicles to strengthen the daemon machines in his own ranks. To ensure that this imposing model with its many intricate details arrives safely at the gaming table with its legion, we have provided this customised Feldherr foam insert. A large, miniature-specific compartment accommodates the Arch-Lord Discordant on his Helstalker, providing optimum protection for this finely detailed miniature. The soft foam not only protects the delicate details, such as the Vex Machinator's impaler chain glaive, but also the colours of the finished miniature remain intact. In addition, the insert with 2 rectangular compartments offers you space for other Chaos Space Marines models, such as Obliterators, Havocs or character models.
