Product Description

During the Clone Wars, Trident-class ships were considered messengers of doom, because whenever one in the colours of the Separatists was sighted, a larger battle group was not far away. Your Trident-class attack cruiser is just the harbinger of your fleet and with more ships you will crush any resistance. This is how you will ultimately bring peace to the galaxy. To prevent your ships from falling victim to the ravages of time or an unintentional nosedive, there is a matching Feldherr MAXI PLUS bag including foam for your miniatures. This allows you to transport your battle formations safely and neatly to battle. The 1 full-size and 4 half-size foam inserts are the ideal storage place for your Separatist fleet. With the Feldherr foam insert FSMFDX110BO, the Kraken ship arrives at the gaming table with all its tentacles and is always ready for epic battles in space, in the air and in the water. The large compartment is tailored precisely to a model of the Trident-class attack ship. The base and the manoeuvring aid can be stored in the large elongated compartment next to it. The holding rods also have their own compartment. You can store your markers, together with the manoeuvre wheels and the resource display, in the square compartment under the ship. The card compartment with a finger-wide cut-out to make it easier to remove the card deck naturally also accommodates the playing cards with protective sleeves. You still have six rectangular compartments for additional fighters. These fit in here with a base. They are suitable for stowing Hyena-class droid bombers, Nantex-class starfighters or Vulture-class droid fighters, for example. Each of the 6 compartments is 50 mm long x 45 mm wide x 100 mm deep. The Slave I impresses with its excellent armour and enormous flexibility in armament. In the 50 mm high insert, one compartment is tailored precisely to the model of the Slave I (compatible with both variants, Slave I and Jango Fett's Slave I). If you want to store a second Slave I, there is also a large rectangular compartment. Here you can either store a second miniature or use the compartment as storage space for playing cards and bases. There are also six smaller compartments for storing other ship models. They are ideal for storing medium-sized ships, such as the SRP droid gunboat, or small ships, such as the tri-droid fighter. These fit in here with bases. Accessories such as markers, command wheels and holding sticks are also perfectly stored here. Equipped with devastating firepower, a cloaking system and advanced technology, the Infiltrator is the perfect ship for the secret operations of the Sith. A miniature-precise compartment offers the Sith Infiltrator a safe place on the flattest half-size insert. The model fits in here both with its wings folded in and out. There is also a compartment for large bases and two for manoeuvre wheels. The latter fit in here with and without an upgrade. You can also store small bases in these compartments if required. The two compartments next to them can either be used to store the small bases or to store small fighters. A hexagonal compartment - just like the remaining two compartments - can be filled with small ship models, such as the Vulture-class droid fighters, the Z-95-AF4 head fighter or Delta-7 aethersprites. The SRP droid gunship also fits into the two medium-sized compartments (59 x 46). The 10-compartment insert is available for additional fighters. Here you can store up to 10 fighters such as Tie-Fighter, Tie-Phantom, HWK-290 and others including mounted base. An insert with 8 compartments is available for additional game material such as bases, manoeuvre wheels, cards and tokens. The precisely fitting compartments ensure that your miniatures are kept safe during transport without the need for holding bolts. The soft foam provides reliable protection against breakage, snapped parts and other damage. And the colours of painted miniatures are spared scratches, abrasion and chipped details. The foam lid supplied ensures that everything is securely packed and nothing falls out during transport. Of course, the inserts fit exactly into the sturdy MAXI PLUS bag. This is made of particularly hard-wearing material. Padded side sections and a reinforced base also ensure that your models are well protected from external influences, even when travelling by car or train. In addition to the large main compartment, the bag has a small compartment with a zip at the front. There is a rubberised, handy carrying handle on the top. If you prefer to have your hands free, you can also use the bag as a shoulder bag thanks to the wear-resistant, detachable shoulder strap.
