Product Description

All figures from the basic game plus 27 additional Descent figures and game material in one bagDo you often meet up with friends to play Descent? The basic box should still be relatively easy to transport. But the more expansions and captain sets you add, the more urgent the need for a suitable transport option becomes. We have of course thought about this for you and found a solution. The Feldherr MEDIUM bag for Descent: Journey into Darkness Second Edition comes completely filled with four customised half-size foam inserts with 16 compartments. It is divided into 12 compartments for small hero and monster miniatures. As well as four additional compartments for large monsters, such as the Elemental. A half-size foam insert with 12 compartments. Consisting of two large compartments for the Shadow Dragons, plus two spaces for the Merriods. An additional eight compartments provide shelter for other small hero and monster figures. A half-size foam tray with 18 compartments. 12 compartments for medium-sized heroes and monsters, such as the Barghest, plus 6 compartments for storing small miniatures. A half-size foam insert with 20 conical compartments. Here, 20 heroes, monsters or captains can be clearly arranged in a horizontal position. The MAXI bag also contains the matching foam lid to protect the collection from above. Customised foam inserts prevent the figures from sliding around or colliding. Colours of painted miniatures do not flake off. Delicate parts, such as swords, claws or wings, are spared from bending or breakage. The high-quality MAXI bag has padded sides and a reinforced base, so that the contents are safe at all times, even when being transported by car or train. A sturdy strap also ensures better carrying comfort. So everything should be ready for the next trip to Terrinoth.
