Product Description

Store and transport the first three expansions - "The Terrible Ambull", "Traitor Command" and "Escalation" - in the convenient shoulder bag. A monstrous Xenos creature that returns to the game boards after 30 years. A chaos-ridden Commissar and an Ogryn. And finally, a new group of explorers facing new dangers and enemies in the Black Fortress. Three expansions that won't let you get bored. To ensure that the 18 miniatures and all the accessories arrive neatly and safely for the next game, we have this convenient MEDIUM bag, filled with all the Feldherr inserts for the first three "Warhammer Quest: Blackstone Fortress" expansions. The Ambull lies on its insert in a customised compartment, securely surrounded by foam all around. This not only protects the delicate, sensitive parts, such as the beetles or its impressive jaws, from damage. The colours of the finished miniature also remain intact. The Borewyrms infestations are stored in the two round compartments next to it. Additional compartments for storing the corresponding game material. A hexagonal compartment holds the location segments and the markers. The double-sided Sett VII also has its own compartment. This leaves a compartment for the cards. It is suitable for the Exploration, Encounter and Discovery cards, as well as for the Lair of the Beast envelope. A finger-wide recess makes it easier to remove the cards. The second insert offers the team of Traitor Commissar and Chaos Ogryn a safe haven with compartments cut to the exact size of a miniature. There is also space for the game material here. One compartment houses the location segment and the markers. The double-sided tile for the spaceship also has its own compartment. This is also where you place the encounter and discovery cards and the Heart of Corruption envelope. The cards from the "Endless Danger" card set also fit in the tray. This leaves a compartment for the small Discovery and Soul Prize cards. Insert number three houses Daedalus, Aradia Madellan and the other miniatures from the "Escalation" expansion. Each of the 13 models has its own customised compartment. The large compartment in the centre can be used to store the medium-sized cards (e.g. encounter cards) and the small cards (e.g. initiative cards). You can also store other game accessories such as markers and dice here. A second insert is included in the pack to neatly store the game material from this expansion. Here you can organise the playing fields and base segments, as well as the markers. The larger game components - trait and reference cards, large playing field components, threat track, Malle's throne envelope and the stasis chamber - are placed on the mat. Finally, the cover made of dimpled foam ensures that everything is perfectly equipped for transport. Larger items, such as reference cards and rulebooks, can be placed on top or stowed in the compartment at the front of the bag. The Feldherr MEDIUM bag is made of particularly hard-wearing material. Padded side panels and a reinforced base also ensure that the miniatures are optimally protected from external influences, even when being transported by car or train. In addition to the large main compartment, the bag has a small compartment with a zip on the front. Here you can store booklets, cards and other small items. There is a rubberised, handy carrying handle on the top. If you prefer to have your hands free, you can also carry the bag comfortably as a shoulder bag thanks to the sturdy, detachable shoulder strap.
