Product Description

To rule the world, your board game box must not rule you. You must have full control over your game material. Especially when you're dealing with the Monumental Edition of Clash of Cultures, an upgraded and improved version of the base game including the "Civilisations" expansion. More than 300 miniatures and over 650 game components need to be stored in such a way that you can find the individual pieces quickly. With this matching Feldherr organiser, you have the sceptre in your hand. Here you can quickly and easily organise your game material in 16 inserts made of robust plastic. This means you don't have to search for individual tokens in the depths of your board game box, nor do you have to spend time pre-sorting the game material. - Feldherr Organiser suitable for the original board game box of Clash of Cultures in the Monumental Edition. - The set offers space for all components of the Monumental Edition. - Each player receives their own tray with the playing pieces and markers in their colour, as well as their required resource indicators. - Barbarian miniatures and pirate ships share their own plastic tray. - 4 card holders are included for your playing cards. You can also store the wonder cards in the same tray as the world wonders miniatures. - All cards fit in the card trays even with protective sleeves (max. outer dimensions: 71 x 94 mm). - You can place player boards, player aids and the round tone board on the player trays. Place the rules booklet on top. - Transport and tilt-proof - Vertical storage possible - Ready to use - No assembly required While you lead your people and your culture to riches and glory and write your name in the history books, we take care of the organisation in your board game box. 4 card holders and 12 plastic inserts ensure that your game material is neatly organised in the original board game box. Clearly organised, you will always know where the individual parts of your game are in future. This saves you time-consuming pre-sorting and allows you to invest the time gained in the further development of your culture. To start the game quickly, take the individual inserts out of the game box and spread them out on the table. Assign each player their personal trays and off you go. When you've played enough, put the filled trays back in the board game box and you're ready for the next game. The set consists of: - 8 plastic player trays, each with eight compartments for units, buildings, markers and resource indicators, sorted by player colour - 4 plastic card holders, each with two compartments for leader cards, event cards, action cards, triumph cards, dice, culture tiles, satisfaction tiles, exhausted!tokens, starting player tokens and the #round indicator - 1 plastic figure tray with five compartments for figures such as barbarian units and pirate ships - 1 plastic wonder tray with ten compartments for world wonders, world wonder cards and civilisation boards - 2 tile holders, each with one compartment for game board components such as starting areas, normal areas and civilisation starting areas The organiser has the following dimensions: 303 mm long x 303 mm wide x 188 mm high - thermoplastic material - made from renewable raw materials - no assembly required - ready to play - 3D printed in Germany As with all 3D printed models, minor imperfections may occur.
