From shadow dragons to harpies and cave spiders, there is a suitable compartment for every miniature. A customised mat provides shelter for the Overlord's allies. Valyndra, The Rat King, Belthir, Skarn, Sinistrael, Bol'Goreth and Queen Ariad have their own customised compartments here. This ensures that the delicate parts of the plastic figures, such as the wings of the Lindworm Queen, are optimally protected from damage. Anyone who has spent hours priming, painting, washing and brushing their half-dragon warriors and a horde of goblin archers will know how important it is to store them correctly. Storing the figures individually in precisely fitting compartments prevents them from sliding around and bumping into each other. This protects the colours from abrasion and chipping. 3 large foam mats help you to organise the game material. Game board pieces, dice and game markers can be clearly sorted into the corresponding compartments so that you always have an overview and no plastic base gets lost. Large cards, such as overlord and captain cards and the small cards, e.g. class or market cards, fit into the compartments provided with or without sleeves. All game materials are therefore quickly to hand and the time and nerves you save on setting up the game can be invested in the game instead. The total of 14 foam mats provide space for figures and game materials from the following boxes and sets: - Descent: Journey into Darkness 2nd Edition Basic Game: - Descent: Journey into Darkness 2nd Edition Expansions: - Descent: Journey into Darkness 2nd Edition Basic Game: - Descent: Journey into Darkness 2nd Edition.
