Product Description

Play Minecraft without a computer? No problem with the board game version of the famous computer game. Awaken your inner master builder and give free rein to your creativity with the chic retro pixel look. The Feldherr Organiser for "Minecraft: Builders & Biomes" and the "Farmers Market" expansion is available so that your fantastic building projects don't fail in the box. This allows you to organise all your game content and build faster. - Feldherr organiser made of plastic for all the game material of the "Minecraft: Builders & Biomes" base game and the "Farmers Market" expansion. Fits in the original base game box. - 3 trays and a plastic insert are available for your building blocks, cards and game material. - The set comes with four figures and a plastic construction aid. You can use these as an alternative to the cardboard versions of the original. - You can paint the miniatures to personalise them. - Place the rulebooks, player boards, block pad and item short rules on the foam cover. You can store the marketplace board separately. - The foam mats provide the necessary stability in the box and prevent the trays from slipping during transport. - transport and tip-proof - vertical storage possible There are no limits to your imagination, but there are limits to your patience. To avoid anti-stress therapy for you, we support you with the right tools. Put an end to the chaos in your box with the various plastic token holders. Gone are the days when you had to dig around in the game box for game material. As an alternative to the cardboard versions of the original, we have included figures and an assembly aid made of sturdy plastic with the set. These not only exude that certain Minecraft flair, but they also make it easier for you to construct your buildings. The main components of the set at a glance: - 1 tray for the building blocks - 1 tray with 8 compartments for building and monster cards, starting structure cards and overview cards. - 1 tray with 19 compartments for figures or player skins with base, item tokens, colourless and coloured weapon tokens, experience markers, player skins, blank skins. With additional space for an insert to store the yellow vegetable markers. - 1 plastic set-up aid as a replacement for the cardboard set-up aid. - 4 plastic figures and bases serve as an alternative to the cardboard set-up aids of the original. Once you have packed all the trays into the box and placed the foam mats, secure everything with the matching foam lid. Place the rulebooks, player boards, block pad and item short rules on the foam lid. Store the marketplace board separately. - High-quality, fine-pored foam - Made in Germany - Chlorine-free and acid-free As with all 3D-printed models, minor imperfections may occur. The product images are only examples of what the finished product may look like. Colours may vary.
