Product Description

Japan, 1761: Lord Daimyo is an important advisor to the powerful shogunate. Who can win the lord's favour? One to four players aged 12 and over take on the role of the families living at Himeji Castle. In nine beautifully interlocking turns, they select the appropriate dice and skilfully use their resources. Will they succeed in placing their own family members in influential positions? To achieve victory, they move around the training grounds, gardens and castle. An atmospheric connoisseur game with nine rounds of play - including a solo game variant. Important information Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months. - Number of players: For 1 to 4 players aged 12 and over- Playing time: 50 to 70 minutes
