Product Description

With "ich lerne rechnen" - children learn to count, add and subtract in a playful way. All tasks have been carefully selected and are in line with the curriculum for children aged 4 and over. The special number system ensures that children can practise independently. Due to the colour and the special back of the number blocks, they only fit in the right place on the exercise card. "I'm learning to count" contains 15 cards with 83 exercises in 6 different levels of difficulty: Counting, adding, subtracting, recognising numbers, reading numbers and multiplying. The game is stored in a practical case - ideal for taking with you. With "I'm learning to count", children can practise at home what they have learnt at school or nursery! I'm learning to count - Recognising and reading numbers Counting - Adding - Multiplying - Subtracting Contents: - 1 case - 15 cards with 83 exercises in 6 levels of difficulty - 30 number blocks.
