Product Description

The necroquake also brought the life magic of the Sylvaneth goddess Alarielle to the otherwise isolated city of Shadespire. Enough energy to fill the trapped forest spirits there with vitality and a thirst for revenge, especially Ylthari and her guardians. We have this half-size foam inlay ready for you so that the angry warband arrives at the next battle well protected and ready for action. A total of 9 compartments ensure that Alarielle's children are kept safe. Four compartments are for the miniatures. Each of these compartments is individually tailored to the models. Packed entirely in foam, Ylthari, Revenant archer Ahnslaine, Galanghann of the Glade and Skhathael are perfectly equipped for transport. The many intricate details are thus perfectly protected from damage. Thanks to the precise fit, the figures stay where they are and the colours of painted Sylvaneth are spared scratches and abrasion. The 5 compartments underneath are reserved for the game material. One card compartment is used to store the cards. It has a finger-wide recess to make it easier to get the cards out. Up to 40 cards can fit in here, even with sleeves. Dice and markers can be sorted into the remaining four compartments. Miniatures and game accessories are neatly stowed away and the four forest spirits can be safely transported to the next game. Details - high-quality, fine-pored foam - Made in Germany - chlorine-free and acid-free Dimensions - foam insert: 275 mm x 172 mm x 50 mm total height (40 mm usable height + 10 mm base)
