Product Description

Pandemonium at the waterhole! Who has the hungriest hippo? In Hippo Flipp, players try to munch the most marbles with their hippo to win. First, everyone lets their marbles roll into the centre - and the chomping begins! The faster the players press on their hippo's tail, the faster it will grab the marbles. When the crazy marble munching is over, each player counts their marbles. (The golden marble counts double!) Who is ready for the next round? The marbles are instantly reloaded and provide non-stop action! They can be stored in the practical marble container for tidying up. The levers of each Hippo are folded down and the game fits into the box. This exciting and easy-to-learn game for preschoolers aged 4+ is a great family game for game nights and a fun game for kids' playdates at home. Looking for an exciting gift for children? Classic board games for families are popular gifts for boys and girls at any time of year.
