Product Description

Starfinder - Flip-Mat: Cantina (DE)

Take a seat in a private booth and let the story begin. Whether your illegal negotiations with a freighter captain escalate into a sword fight or your festive night in the lounge of an opulent space amusement park turns into an action-packed shootout, most astronaut adventures begin or end in the bar!

The Starfinder Flip-Mat: Cantina offers both shady and sophisticated options for urban intrigue, from a nasty dump full of scraps, which is suitable for any colony planet or asteroid, to a high society dance club the richest space stations and space yachts. Both have their own back rooms for private shows and dirty offerings, where drinks flow and laser beams whip through the air.

Dive into the secret shops and exciting shootouts of space nightlife! With the Starfinder Flip-Mat: Cantina, your next adventure might just be a drink away!

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
