Product Description

DSA5 Myth: Madness, Playing Card Set (DE)

This card set contains mental disorders that can occur when looking at gruesome mythical creatures or when practicing dark magic. The set is broken down into four levels that can represent the severity of madness a hero suffers from. From phobias to delusions to complete lethargy, you can find a wide variety of mental disorders here.

Warning! Not suitable for children under 3 years!

The rules Sandy Petersen's Cthulhu Mythos are required!
