Purple Shine & Heroic Legends (Suncoast) - Master Set

Purpurschein & Heldensagen is a supplement to the regional game aid Die Sonnenküste - Die Zyklopeninseln & der Wilde Süden.

Count Tizzo of Eskenderun is seething with rage: one of his precious topaz caravans has disappeared without a trace. In Blood Topaz in Thegün, the heroes learn about the culture of the Wild South and are allowed to administer justice in the name of the nobility.

The legendary deeds of Geron the One-Handed inspire young Aventurian heroes and help those who make the pilgrimage in Geron's footsteps to find themselves and recognise their strengths.

A shipwreck has been found on the island of Tenos - high in the clouds on top of a mountain! To uncover the mystery of The Ship on the Mountain, the heroes travel to the small village of Sorabis and engage in an exciting race.

A brawl breaks out in the tavern Slave Driver's Death for seemingly no reason. Will the heroes survive the night of Morbal's murder or end up in the dirty alleys of the prison town?

The sword of Skebos is a mystery. Commissioned by a Hylail sea mercenary, the heroes search for the weapon of the rulers of Skebos and must face the island's past in the process.

The heroes become part of a classic heroic epic in The Beast from Ancient Times. Cyclops appear in a mine on Kutaki and drive away the workers. What might be the reason for the visit of the one-eyed giants?

Among the nobility of the Wild South, the heroes mingle in To the Point. A princely wedding is taking place on the pyramid with the world-famous Hanging Gardens of Dról, and on behalf of a mysterious client they have to prevent an éclat.

The volume is rounded off by a description of the Octagon in Thegün, headquarters of the Hesinde Order of the Draconites.

The set also contains

- useful inserts for the universal player's screen
 - the "On the Adventure" scenario Cyclops' Eye with prefabricated, directly playable heroes
 - the short adventure "Kalias' Labyrinth"
