Product Description

Deluxe effect marker - extension for: HeXXen 1733 (DE)

Whether a combatant suffers from frostbite, plagued by poisoning, wrapped in bondage or the courage has lost - with these handy acrylic markers you can depict a number of so-called persistent influences by simply placing them on the opponent's tiles or on the hunter's bow. In many cases, these almost always harmful or hindering influences stack up to a value of 5 - no problem for the acrylic markers; they are easy to stack.

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
