Product Description

DSA source books: Faith, Power and Heroism - The Shores of the God Whale

Equipped with faith, power and heroism, the heroes of the Shores of the God Whale go on adventures. While the Thorwals are connected by their belief in their god Swafnir, the Gjalsk shamans serve many deities, led by the mammoth god Natru-Gon.

Brave warriors defend their Ottajasko from all kinds of dangers or roam as animal warriors through the moors and the highlands of the Gjalsker. In the magical academies of Thorwal and Olport, the magicians pursue the exploration of the elements and the analysis of magical phenomena, while the magical wizarding bards, called Sangara in Thorwal, move from place to place and sow discord or make peace in the name of the Swafnir's son Ögnir.

In this focus rule supplement to Die Gestade des Gottwals you get talent, combat, magic and liturgical styles, as well as extended special skills for the traditions and professions presented in the regional game aid.

For use of Faith, Power & amp; Heroism: You only need The Shores of the God Whale, The Shores of the God Whale, The Black Eye Rulebook and the Aventurian Almanac. All other necessary rules are included.

Warning!Not suitable for children under 36 months.
