Product Description

Item no.: 510002830 Designation: 1:48 Junker Ju-87G-1 Stuka Kanonenvogel The JU-87 dive bomber is certainly one of the best-known and most famous aircraft from the Second World War. This characteristic aircraft with its distinctive bent wings gained great fame at the beginning of the war and, together with the Wehrmacht's armoured divisions, is regarded as a symbol of the Blitzkrieg. Over the course of the war, new versions with different mission profiles were introduced. The Ju-87G was developed as an "anti-tank" version of the famous Stuka to counter the impressive number of enemy armoured vehicles on the Eastern Front after 1943. The famous Stuka pilot Hans Ulrich Rudel suggested two 37 mm Flak 18 cannons mounted in underwing positions to better counter this new threat. In this configuration, the Ju-87G "Kanonenvogel" proved to be extremely effective in the hands of experienced pilots.
