Product Description

The world is your oyster - but that's not enough. Because in Conquer! there is only one goal: to win over as much of the globe as possible. It sounds simple, but you have to plan well: lay out maps with neighbouring regions in front of you to expand your empire. You have to think strategically, collect the right cards and think carefully about when you dare to conquer your opponents' territories in order to claim them for yourself. When you attack, you have to think carefully about how many regions you choose to support and anticipate which cards your opponent will use to defend themselves. Who will have conquered the most territory in the end? -Casual card game with a tactical twist-Inspired by a famous board game
