Product Description

Crunchy, crunchy, crunchy... When Hansel and Gretel get lost in the deep forest, they see a house made of gingerbread and sweets of all kinds - chocolate, donuts, sweets and everything the sweet heart desires. But it is guarded by an evil witch who does not allow children to snack on it. The players help Hansel and Gretel to take as many treats as they can without being caught by the witch. Hansel and Gretel is a co-operative, beautifully designed game for two to four fairy tale fans aged 6 and over. The game is played in the box - the gingerbread house is placed in the centre and the wooden fairytale figures move directly on the edge of the box. - Cooperative children's game with an exciting walking mechanism - Fairytale theme, high-quality game material
Number of players 2 - 4 people
Suitable for 6 - 99 years
