Product Description

Let's travel back in time to the 15th century, to the workshop of the famous Johannes Gutenberg. The smell of black printing ink fills the air as the master turns a large wooden handle that sets the printing press in motion. Your order books are full, but do you have enough money in your coffers to get all the materials you need? Because the competition has already heard about your invention of letterpress printing and wants to squeeze you out of the market. In this strategy game, you must constantly improve your workshop, buy ink and letters so that you can fulfil the most profitable orders possible. - Thematic strategy game in a historical scenario- With real wooden lettersNumber of players1 - 4 peopleSuitable for12 - 99 yearsPlaying time60 - 120 minutesPackaging78 x 295 x 295 mm
