Product Description

Oh dear! Pino Postino, the messenger falcon of the Forest Kingdom, has broken his wing. Anyone who can move quickly and inconspicuously through the countryside is exactly the right animal here. And so the deer, wild boar, rabbit, fox and bear enter the competition: Who will be allowed to take on this important task until Pino is healthy again? At the beginning, everyone is given a secret animal identity. The five animal messengers are moved by you on their way through the different landscapes of the country using maps. Who is quick-witted and foresighted? Who will be able to uncover the identities of the others and win extra points? - Deduction game with secret identities - Playfully discover animal habitats
