Product Description

This belongs in a museum! Your exclusive collection of avant-garde art needs a good place in the exhibition. In Avant Carde, you play cards from your hand - in a specific sequence of numbers and colours. The more cards you can lay out in front of you, the more money you have to buy new and better paintings - i.e. cards. Many of these can trigger special actions for new possible combinations. This is how you improve your card deck round by round. Whoever puts together the most valuable exhibition receives awards.
