Product Description

Fields of Green: Festsaison - Expansion, for 2-4 players, from 12 Years

It will be that time again soon! The annual festival season begins! At this big festival, farmers from all over the region come to see the attractions, have a good party and to show who has the biggest potatoes in the competitions. There is also a trade fair where the latest achievements in agricultural technology are on display. The festival season is really a celebration of rural life that you just have to be a part of!

Festival season is an expansion for Fields of Green. It introduces many new game elements, such as the attractions of the festival, with which you can interact in a special way. There are also new maps, objectives and materials for a fifth person, as well as solo game rules!

Fields of Green is a card game for 2-4 game connoisseurs ages 12 and up and combines various mechanisms, such as deck building and placement games. The game is by Vangelis Bagiartakis, the author of Among the Stars and Dice City.

The game is set at the time of the agricultural 20th century. Take on the role of farm owner and try to successfully expand your property and your business. By adding fields, livestock and plants to your herd, you build an economic process that brings you closer to victory little by little!

The basic game is required!
