Product Description

This game is for EVERYONE - young or old, big or small. Sword fighting skills? You don't need any! All you need is the desire to slash other people with fake swords. EN GARDE!- 3-6 players- 7+ Age- 15+ minutesThe crazy party game Welcome to the slash and stab fest comes with two full-size foam swords that you can slash at each other. You want to collect three cards of the same colour. Sounds easy, but be careful - if you want the same card as another person, you'll have to fight for it ... with swords. With swords. One card determines how you fight. But sometimes it's not just one card that determines your battle, but two or three. The first player to collect three sets of cards wins! This is the very first sword-fighting card game in which you compete for cards and settle disputes by fighting with foam swords just like adults do.
