Product Description

Fabulantica (Nominated Children's Game of the Year 2019), board game, for 2 - 5 players, from 6 years

A failed spell has scattered the inhabitants of Fabulantica all over the country. Confused as to what this was, the inhabitants wait for help under the protection of the towers, because nobody knows where the other inhabitants have gone. The players have to help the inhabitants of Fabulantica to find their friends again. With horses, donkeys, camels, ships or the magic carpet the players can move from place to place. First they look for the inhabitants shown in the lower part of the open order cards, then their friends in the upper part of the card. As a reward they receive a gold coin. But each time a resident is successfully found, the corresponding figure moves to a different location. Little stories help to remember who has moved where.

Fabulantica is a fairytale memory game with a catchy travel mechanism. The players have to plan exactly how to use their travel maps to get to the places where they suspect the fairy tale characters they are looking for.
