Product Description

Vienna Connection, board game (DE), for 1-5 players, ages 16+

Vienna, January 17, 1977. The battered corpse of an American is found. During the investigation, the Austrian Federal Police discovered a code card. February 2, 1977. A team of CIA agents arrives at Vienna International Airport. The White Bee mission begins. Vienna Connection is a cooperative deduction game set during the Cold War. Players lead a team of CIA agents who conduct covert operations across Central Europe, gathering intelligence, tracking down leads, and analyzing data to complete a range of missions.

Vienna Connection was inspired by real events and is based on the investigation system from Detective - A crime thriller board game. Instead of using the digital Antares database, however, the detective work takes place in an analogue style. A pile of files with almost 100 document pages is available to the players for this purpose. The fascinating story leads the CIA team over the course of four missions to four Central European countries.
