Product Description

Kakerlaloop Be careful !, board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 5+

The colorful beetles start a fast race through the cockroach territory . But who will she catch this time? With courage and luck, the one who reaches the finish line first with all his beetles wins.

The cheeky beetles frantically feed their way through the cockroach's dangerous territory. She doesn't like that at all: Suddenly she dashes out of her ventilation shaft. The beetles freeze in shock and hope that the cockroach doesn't catch them this time - otherwise it will throw them out of the backyard. With a lot of courage and luck, who will be the first to reach the safe gate?

Each player has to bring his three beetles to the gate on the other side of the backyard. One player takes on the role of the cockroach and plays against the bug players. All players roll the dice at the same time: While the beetle players move their figures forward by the corresponding number of dice with each throw, the cockroach player tries to throw the cockroach five times. Because then the game stops and the cockroach coin is used. If the coin shows the yellow side, all beetles that are on a yellow field must return to the starting field. If you don't get caught by the cockroach in the action-packed beetle race, you will be the first to reach the goal with all the beetles and win the game. With an easy entry-level and fast-paced action variant.
