Product Description

Villa Paletti, board game, for 2-4 players, ages 8+ (DE edition)

"Villa Paletti" is an extraordinary building game, in which the laws of statics are out of joint. At the beginning of the game, an asymmetrical platform is placed on pillars. The players in turn place one of their five pillars on the top plate. If you can no longer do this, you can place the next plate. The winner is the player who can place the most valuable pillars on the top level of the rickety mansion. Only architects with steady hands can complete the construction of the "Villa Paletti". The "Game of the Year 2002" offers perfectly shaped thrills in a daring Tuscan lightweight construction.
