Product Description

Space Explorer - a homage to the beginnings of space travel, for 3 - 4 players, ages 12+ (DE edition)

You can only reach for the stars first with the best experts!

Each player takes over the management of a research and development location of the space research center. All players bring the best experts into their team and carry out various space projects, such as putting satellites and manned spaceships into orbit or sending interplanetary space stations into space.

The game is over when the players have completed all available projects or when a player has brought 12 experts into his team. The experts and projects each bring evaluation points. The player who has collected the most rating points wins. So then - as Yuri Gagarin exclaimed at the start - "Pojechali!" (Let's go!)

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.

- Players: For 3 to 4 players, ages 12+
- Playing time: 20 to 40 minutes
