Product Description

Selling hit - the memo game for language lovers and word finders (DE edition)

The Hamburg typographer and designer Ralf Mauer has created animals from fonts for decades. Garamond, Fraktur or Optima become elements of the design. Each animal has its own distinctive character. The metaphorical animal names are newspaper duck, cheeky badger or jealous hammel. The additional word for the typographic animal picture is then set in the same font in which the animal is "drawn", so that it is a flawless typographic pair.

This drawing method is not only original and unique, it also creates an extraordinary zoo that must first be brought together when playing memory games - because the night waits for the owl like the worm for the books. Packed in a noble box with a slip lid, this new memory game is the perfect gift for all friends of language, animals and typography. In the booklet, the typefaces are named and the pairs are broken down and the working method of the typographer is also shown.

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.

- Players: For 2+ players, ages 6+
