Product Description

A boat is stranded on the northern shore of Andor, a man with no memory. Only his name remains: Varkur. The young fisherman Ranja finds him and nurses him back to health. But fear of the strange stranger grows in the village. Accompanied by Ranja, Varkur flees to finally find answers. His journey becomes an inner struggle between good and evil, between love and power. The well-known comic artist Timo Grubing has congenially illustrated Varkur's previously untold story: A new look at the evil wizard of Andor and how he became what he is.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
