Product Description

The wait is finally over! The legendary mask of Mu has been found. An unknown person informs the team and arranges a meeting at a secret location. Quickly, all crew members come together before others snatch the legendary find. The expedition leads them into the middle of the endless jungle of South America. But before they reach their destination in the rickety plane, something unexpected happens. An adventure full of riddles begins!

The story brings the 1-4 players right into the middle of the action in three short chapters. Like Indiana Jones, they have to complete tasks, combine objects and overcome obstacles in this analogue PC game. Each member of the team takes on a specific role and makes decisions together. An action-packed mystery adventure game in the Green Hell for the family from the age of 10. Adventure Games - Discover the story.
