Product Description

In the world of Everden lies a mystical forest called Humblewood, nestled between the Ridge Mountains and the Moch Fields, beating with the same pulse as the Great Rhythm. For generations, the forest has been ruled by the flock of birds from the Great Tree City of Alderheart. But after Humblewood prospered for centuries thanks to the diligence and dedication of its locals, the fires and chaos came.

Flames destroy the land and the home of the ground flock. Which leads to bitterness among them towards the bird flock, for their perches have so far escaped the worst. Hatred burns in the hearts of those who have lost their beloved way of life - hitherto peaceful people have turned away from the law. Those who are discontented turn their gaze to Alderheart, threatening to turn an age of growth and peace into ashes.

But there is still hope. Even in these dark times, there are brave heroines in the forest. Only they can extinguish the raging flames raining down on the land and restore balance to the realm. You are one of them. Will you answer this call?

Humblewood is an exciting new setting for 5th Edition and includes ten new playable races, new monsters and magic items, and an exciting adventure for characters of levels 1 to 5. The 5th Edition Basic Rulebooks are required to play.
