Product Description

For all fans of Carnegie, the expansion Departments & Donations adds four new modules that can be played independently or in any combination.

The module A New Beginning, in which the players secretly manage their starting capital and choose their starting resources, provides for an asymmetrical game. They can also bid to become the starting player. With the other two modules, a total of 16 new departments and four new donation tiles come into play, which provide additional variance in the game structure. In order to offer experienced players new and challenging game possibilities, Departments & Donations also comes with three optional rules that can be introduced into the game as desired.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
