Product Description

The GraviTrax POWER Elements Starter & Finish include both electronic components for the Ravensburger marble run system. A new marble should start as soon as the previous marble has travelled the track and reached the finish? No problem with the GraviTrax POWER Elements Starter & Finish. The starter and the finish arena each hold up to 7 balls. The two POWER elements of the ball track are connected to each other by radio. As soon as a ball passes through the two-part finish, a new ball is sent onto the track! For even more action and much longer running times. Important information- Batteries includedCaution!Not suitable for children under 36 months.- Number of people:For 1+ players aged 8 and over
