Product Description

A snowy winter weekend at the Bärenfeld Christmas market ends fatally for an actor in the nativity play. What happened on stage in public? As every winter, a nativity play takes place at the Bärenfeld Christmas market. But something unexpected happens during this performance. After the last scene at the end of the play, the audience is horrified to see a corpse. A crime committed in front of the audience right on stage? A dramatically staged suicide of the protagonist? Or a tragic accident? Neither the audience nor the actors seem to have noticed anything. The police are in the dark and ask for your help in solving Josef's death on this cold winter's day. As a team of up to 6 detectives, solve this exciting sixth criminal case from Hidden Games in a multidimensional hunt for the culprit.
