Product Description

DESCRIPTION There is no such thing as the "one" truth that explains this world and life. This word machine provides young and older people with theories, speculations and nonsense combinations that are perfect for discussing the contradictions and questions of life. From Father Christmas to patriarchy, hundreds of thousands of answers are provided here for the whole family. Climate crisis and social media, bans on going out and selfies, Mickey Mouse and having children: Pia Frey's new random generator for the kitchen table negotiates everything that affects different generations equally. Important information Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
