Product Description

Have you ever got up particularly early on holiday to reserve sun loungers by the pool with your towel? Do you have a garden gnome watching over your front garden? Or have you ever clapped your hands after a successful landing in an aeroplane? If you can answer "yes" to at least one of these questions, you may be more German than you previously thought. And you have the very best chance of winning this game! Bratwurst, Bier & Gartenzwerge is a truly entertaining question game in which the aim is to collect points for typical German behaviour in a wide variety of everyday situations. The game contains more than 300 pertinent questions on topics such as folk music, gingerbread hearts, sunbed squatters, Phantasialand stickers, Adiletten and much more. An exciting and entertaining game where you can get to know yourself better, have lots of fun and engage in lively discussions. Important information Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
