Product Description

How close can you get to the right answer with wacky questions? With this fun game we create a new extravagant level of the classic 'guess how many peas this jar contains' - with crazy, pointless and quirky questions! An engaging and truly entertaining game with more than 300 interesting and bizarre questions. It's not about knowing exactly the correct answer, but rather about getting as close as possible to the right answer by guessing or estimating. A lot of common sense and creativity is required here. Be prepared for lots of absurd guesses, from yourself and your friends! The perfect game for any fan of nonsensical knowledge and weird facts, spiced up with a good pinch of humour. A great game for dinners and parties! Important information Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
