Product Description

Tobago: Volcano, board game, for 2-4 players, ages 10+ (DE extension)

Under palm trees, next to huts, in forests and in the mountains, treasures were searched for in the basic game Tobago. Now the Volcano, towering high above the game board, also brings lava into play. As a result, the landscape of the island changes over and over again. Treasure maps take on new meanings as the embers spread across lakes, rivers and beaches. Treasures can suddenly be found in places where no one suspected them before.

The legendary treasure hunt of Tobago continues. Volcano adds an imposing three-dimensional experience to the island experience, from which lava spreads over the game board.
