Product Description

The licensed Willys Jeep has been released as an enhanced 1:12 scale model and is perfect for the 80th anniversary celebrations of the Allied landings in Normandy! The most popular off-road vehicle in the world has been carefully designed using COBI building blocks and consists of 1,207 elements. Completely new elements have been created especially for this set, with details reminiscent of the appearance of a historic vehicle. The giant block Willys MB has a characteristic grille and bonnet, realistic rotating wheels, a working steering wheel, interior details and a replica engine. The brick-built car is equipped with a heavy machine gun and petrol cans that can be attached to the back. The wheels with rubber tyres turn and can be moved during play. The building blocks feature high-quality prints with historical markings of a vehicle that served in the 101st Airborne Division of the US Army. A similarly painted historical vehicle from 1944 belongs to COBI and served as the model for this wonderful collector's set! The set perfectly complements the very extensive Historical Collection WWII series from COBI! Build history, brick by brick! The Jeep Willys MB is a legendary off-road vehicle that played a key role in the Second World War. It was manufactured by the American company Willys-Overland Motors and was part of a military programme to provide vehicles for the US Army and its allies. Willys MB was characterised by its simple design, solidity and reliability in difficult field conditions. Its compact size, robustness and ability to cope with difficult terrain made it a legend in automotive history.
