Product Description

The model was released in a collection prepared for the 80th anniversary of the Allied landings in Normandy and is marked with the official logo of the organisers of the anniversary celebrations. The Dodge WC 56 Command Car, released under the RAM licence, is an American command car that was used to transport officers and communicate on the battlefield during the Second World War. The model made of clamp building blocks was developed on a scale of 1:35 and contains many prints based on historical markings from 1944. A special building block in the form of a characteristic radiator grille was developed for Dodge vehicles. The model has rotating wheels with rubber tyres and mounting options for figures. The set includes two soldier figures. The faithfully reproduced American general is based on an authentic historical figure. He is accompanied by a military driver. The Dodge WC 56 Command Car is a legendary military vehicle that was mainly used in the Second World War. Known for its versatility and solid construction, it was mainly used as a command vehicle and for transporting personnel. Equipped with an impressively powerful engine, it manoeuvred easily over difficult terrain. Thanks to its features and characteristic appearance, it became an icon of the military automotive industry of the time. - 208 high-quality elements- manufactured in the EU by a company with over 20 years of tradition- meets the safety standards for children's products- fully compatible with clamp blocks from other brands- blocks with imprints do not deform or fade during play or under the influence of temperature- car model- 2 figures - general and driver- model dimensions (L x H): 12.5 cm (4.9 inches) x 5.5 cm (2.2 inches)- from 7 years
