Product Description

Survive the Island You are on an island to unearth long-awaited treasures. Everything was going great until suddenly there are rumbles and tremors all around you. The island's volcanoes awaken from a centuries-long slumber and a few giant, ancient creatures become aware of you ... The island is slowly sinking into the sea. Now you'd better make off with as many treasures as possible! As long as you are not back on the mainland, you are in great danger. Other expedition groups are also trying to escape. They don't seem to be leaving you one of the few rafts just like that. Escape from the volcanoes and the creatures lurking underwater or in the deep forest, but above all beware of the other adventurers ... there are no rules when it comes to survival! In the family game Survive the Island, you and 10 adventurers escape from an island that is sinking into the sea. Each adventurer carries a treasure, the value of which is written on the underside of the treasure. Save as many treasures as possible and make sure that the creatures don't catch your adventurers as you lead them to the mainland ... before 3 of the 4 volcanoes erupt!
