

Item no.: 395695

DS037 - Century Post Office

from 17,45 EUR

Item no.: 395695
shipping weight: 0.90 kg Manufacturer: Rolife

Product Description

Celebrate the era of writing physical, intentional letters by hand with Rolife Century Post Office. This endearing DIY miniature house captures all the elements of the beloved post office where all letters and packages are received and sent!-Age: 14+-Material: Plywood, Paper, Resin parts-Assembly Time: 1.5h-Assembled Size: 95*95*120mm-Package Size: 230*192*55mm-Pieces: 124 EAN: 6946785121001SKU: DS037 Categories: Mysterious World, New Arrivals, RolifeDo you remember receiving that holiday card, postcard, or stamped envelope? Millennials may find it amusing in this electronic age, but back in the day, the post office was a huge part of any town or city. Most people live and breathe connection, and the post office makes that possible by gathering communities, exchanging news, and maintaining social ties with letters, packages, and personal messages. The post office was a trusted and reliable institution where these things were delivered safely and securely.Rolife creates this charming reminder of a bygone age of handwritten letters and tangible exchanges with a detailed miniature that includes the classic signage, the window lettering, a typewriter, airmail envelopes on a package, the newspaper rack, the realistic mailbox, and the postmaster's desk. Even the little touches like the brick accents, welcoming staircase, and cute kitty exude a special warmth that reminds you of small-town life. Slow down, open the DIY kit, and build this cherished bridge to the past.

Specifications

Scan this QR code to view the product

All details, up-to-date
prices and availability

