Product Description

Witness - On the trail of the chameleon (Deep Print Games) In the revised new edition of Witness, exactly four people fight crime together as members of the secret organisation "Witness Agency"! A prologue introduces the case, after which each team member receives their own secret clues. In the four whisper rounds, these are passed on to another person - in the direction of the arrow on the whisper card. In the first round, only their own clues are whispered, from the next round onwards, the clues that the players received in the previous round are also whispered. After the fourth round of whispering, the players secretly answer three questions about the case. Those who have listened carefully and answered the questions correctly will receive valuable points when the case is solved. Dem Chamäleon auf der Spur contains an adventure with 8 individual cases with a continuous storyline. A revolutionary invention in the fight against climate change attracts the interest of spies and criminals from many countries who want to steal the top-secret plans for this invention. The game group has to prevent this and must follow the trail of the "Chameleon", their eternal adversary...
