Product Description

Game Shell 250+ - white

The Game Shell is a portable case that is the perfect size for a variety of uses. It can hold up to 250 double sleeved cards, tokens, dice or even complete small games. The exterior material is made of heavy-duty and durable nylon with a high-quality texture. It features a reinforced handle and two zippers that are hidden and protected by the outer material. Inside, the Game Shell offers an accessory compartment and 2 adjustable dividers. This allows a completely free setup, customizable to the needs and preferences of the players. Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
