Product Description

One of the most ground-breaking F1 cars of all time, the ground-effect Lotus 79 had proved to be the class of the field in 1978. By 1979, however, it was outclassed and it was a much more difficult season. The iconic black and gold JPS livery was also replaced by the green livery with Martini stripes and additional sponsorship from Tissot watches. Mario Andretti finished fourth in the USA West GP, just behind the two dominant Ferraris and the Williams of Alan Jones. 1:32 scale, high-detailed, Caution! Not suitable for children under 3 years. Choking hazard due to small parts.
