Product Description

A set of three figures depicting Warsaw insurgents from 1944. Among the figures we find a liaison woman with a Polish flag and Home Army soldiers in improvised uniforms, whose characteristic features were white and red armbands and Polish symbols on caps and captured helmets. All figures feature brand new, very attractive uniform and face prints as well as stands for easy display. Each figure comes with accessories such as an MP 40 submachine gun, a shaft grenade or a Mauser rifle. Thanks to various sets of figures, you can quickly build your army from bricks! You can create scenes and dioramas with figures and accessories. Take a look at other sets with figures! The Warsaw Uprising broke out on 1 August 1944 at 5 pm (W hour) and lasted until 3 October. It was an armed action by the Polish resistance movement, mainly the Home Army, against the German troops occupying Warsaw. The aim of the uprising was to liberate the capital before the invasion of the Red Army in order to secure Poland's sovereignty after the war. Despite initial successes, the insurgents were unable to hold their positions in the face of overwhelming German forces and a lack of sufficient help from outside. After 63 days of extremely devastating and fierce fighting, the uprising was crushed. Around 16,000 insurgents and around 150-200,000 civilians died and the city was almost completely destroyed. To this day, the Warsaw Uprising is a symbol of enormous courage and sacrifice in the name of higher values. - 35 high-quality elements, - manufactured in the EU by a company with over 20 years of tradition, - meet the safety standards for children's products, - fully compatible with clamp building blocks from other brands, - building blocks with imprints do not deform or fade during play or under the influence of temperature, - 3 figures with accessories. - Number of parts: 35 - Number of figures: 3 - Age group: 5+
