Product Description

Floor by floor, you build a tower block in Gotown. But be careful, you're not the only one reaching for the stars. GoTown is an urban jungle. After an intense day, the night chases away the day. The city seems quiet, but watch out! You're not the only ones trying to build a property empire. The other players are also trying to build the tallest tower. The first player to complete a tower with 5 floors wins. To build a floor, you play 2 cards that add up to 9 and place them next to each other in front of you (e.g. 6 + 3 = 9). The cards are decorated with fine illustrations. Some of them are special cards for special actions. You want to protect one of your floors from the other players? The dog will keep watch. Unfortunately, it can be lured away with the bone card. To destroy a floor, play the cards with a jackhammer or wrecking ball. The Thief and Super Thief cards help if you want to steal cards from the other players. But make sure you don't get any milkshake or donut truck cards. Because then you would have to sit out a round. The 4 joker cards can be combined with any other floor card. - Small format: practical to take along and easy to store- Competitive game for all generations2 - 4 people6 - 99 years20 minutes3 x 6 x 11 mm
